2017 OUTLOOK

2017 SEASON OUTLOOK

Seniors Adora Anae (L), Carly Trueman (10) and Tawnee Luafalemana (20) will be the three seniors the 2017 Ute squad will heavily rely on as the season gets underway.

The 2016 season did not end on the most positive note, but then again, the Utah Utes of 2016 may have gone on to accomplish more than a lot of people had imagined. Despite falling in the first round of the NCAA Tournament last season, Utah will still look to carry a majority of the momentum it had going for them at the tail end of the campaign.

That momentum . . . a driving energy that head coach Beth Launiere turned into 20 overall wins, 11 Pac-12 wins (most in program history) and a fifth-place finish in the conference standings (highest finish since Utah joined the league in 2012).

Along with the victories, Launiere also has the luxury of bringing back a loaded roster from 2016, which includes a pair of All-Pac-12 honorees (Adora Anae, 1st Team; Tawnee Luafalemana, HM), an AVCA All-Pacific South Region selection (Anae, 1st Team) and AVCA All-American (Anae, 2nd Team).

In addition to Anae's school-record 592 kills last season, Launiere welcomes back her top four leaders in kills, three of her top four dig-leaders, her leader in assists and the top two blockers.

Anae led the squad and ranked first in the Pac-12 with 4.70 kills-per-set. She was followed by Carly Trueman, who posted 346 kills (2.88/set) and Luafalemana, who tallied 262 kills (2.05/set) in her first season with the Utes. Luafalemana also led the team with a .329 hitting percentage. Utah's final kill-leader returning to the team is Berkeley Oblad, who posted 231 kills (1.89/set).

Meanwhile, Anae also comes back as the team-leader in digs, posting a team-high 407 digs (3.23/set) in 2016. Brianna Doehrmann ranked third on the team with 268 digs (2.46/set) and Bailey Choy followed with 233 digs (1.82/set). Both players were true freshmen last season and their defensive efforts will be looked upon again this season.

Luafalemana registered 132.0 total blocks and Oblad chipped in with 112.0 blocks a season ago, while Choy, who started 28 of 32 matches as a true freshman last season, came close to posting 1,000 assists while the team predominately ran a 6-2 offense. She finished the season with 918 assists.

Torre Glasker (38 kills, 6 aces, 105 digs, 9 total blocks) returns as the seventh letterwinner from last season's squad, while Lauren Sproule (redshirt) returns to the team will look to see her first action donning the Red and White.

Along with the veteran leadership, Launiere will also bring in eight new players to the team, which includes a junior college transfer and seven incoming freshmen. Despite the youth, this is a group that will serve as the core of Utah Volleyball in the future. It also comes in as a group that was tabbed the 11th-best recruiting class in the nation, according to PrepVolleyball.com. The No. 11 ranking is Utah's highest recruiting class ranking in more than 10 years and first top-30 ranking since 2011 (No. 20).

Lauga Gauta (Garden Grove, Calif.) transfers in from Northwest College (Wyo.), while Utah's incoming freshman class includes – Kristen Abels (Chula Vista, Calif.), Dani Barton (Sandy, Utah), Phoebe Grace (Laie, Hawaii), Kenzie Koerber (Chino Hills, Calif.), Camryn Machado (Cardiff by the Sea, Calif.), Shannon Scully (Huntington Beach, Calif.) and Alexa Van Komen

Utah celebrates its 3-2 victory over #9-ranked BYU at Smith Fieldhouse in Provo back on Sept. 15, 2016. The Utes and Cougars meet up this season at the Huntsman Center in Salt Lake City on Sept. 14, 2017.

(El Dorado Hills, Calif.).

Utah's recruiting class, which includes three PrepVolleyball All-Americans in Barton, Grace and Scully, also ranked among the best in the Pac-12. The 2017 incoming class ranked higher than Arizona (No. 12), California (No. 15), USC (No. 16), Oregon State (No. 19), Stanford (HM), Washington (HM) and Washington State (HM).

"This class is strong in both talent and numbers," said Launiere. "We believe they will have a great impact on the Utah volleyball program throughout their careers. We are excited to have these players in our program and cannot wait to start working with them."

Veteran leadership and a core group of talented young players, notwithstanding, the Utes will be tested early as the 2017 as the schedule is littered with multiple top-25 teams - to include both Pac-12 opponents and a tough non-conference slate.

Utah, who begins the season ranked No. 23 in the AVCA Preseson Poll, opens the campaign at the Bluegrass Battle in Lexington, Ky., on Aug. 25-26, and the Utes will not have to wait long before seeing one of the 10 preseason top-25 ranked teams when they face No. 14 Kentucky in the second match of the season.

Other non-conference preseason ranked teams on the docket include, No. 10-ranked BYU (Sept. 14), No. 19 Missouri (Sept. 9), No. 20 Hawaii (Sept. 3) and No. 22 San Diego (Sept. 8).

Utah will play its first three matches on the road for the first time since 2012 when the team played a two-day tournament just up the road at Utah State in Logan, Utah. This marks the first time a Ute team has played on the road, out of state, since 2007 when Utah played in the AVCA Showcase in Omaha, Neb.

The Utes will head to Hawaii a week later and will not play its first home match until Sept. 8, when the team hosts San Diego in the first match of the Utah Volleyball Classic. The last time a Utah team waited until Sept. 8 to play its first home match of the season came back in 2006.

Following the Utah Classic, the Utes will look to defend last year's Deseret First Duel victory against BYU when the Cougars head down to play the Utes inside the Huntsman Center on Sept. 14. Utah then closes out non-conference play just one day later, taking a trip to Orem, Utah, to square-off with Utah Valley.

Utah will have the luxury of opening its rigorous Pac-12 schedule at home, hosting Colorado (Sept. 22) and California (Sept. 24) during the first weekend of conference play. The Utes will remain at home the following week to host Oregon (Sept. 29) and Oregon State (Sept. 30).

The Utes hit the road for the first time in Pac-12 play when they head to the Pacific Northwest to play Washington (Oct. 6) and Washington State (Oct. 8). Road play will continue the following week as the Utes head to the desert to face Arizona (Oct. 13) and Arizona State (Oct. 15).

The remainder of the schedule sets up home and away matches every other week for the Utes. Following home dates against UCLA (Oct. 20) and USC (Oct. 22), the Utes will then head to Oregon (Oct. 25) and Oregon State (Oct. 27). Utah then returns back home to host Washington State (Nov. 2) and Washington (Nov. 4), but will head to So-Cal the following week to face both Los Angeles-bases squads – USC (Nov. 9) and UCLA (Nov. 12).

The final two weeks of the regular-season include home matches against Arizona State (Nov. 17) and Arizona (Nov. 18), along with road dates at Stanford (Nov. 22) and then Colorado (Nov. 25).

Utah will have 14 of its 20 Pac-12 Conference matches televised on the Pac-12 Network this season. The Utes will play on television for six straight games from Sept. 22 (Colorado) through Oct. 8 (at Washington State). Remaining televised matches will include: at ASU (Oct. 15), UCLA (Oct. 20), USC (Oct. 22), at Oregon (Oct. 25), at USC (Nov. 9), ASU (Nov. 17), at Stanford (Nov. 22) and at Colorado (Nov. 25).

"We are excited to be on the Pac-12 Network 15 times this coming season, which is the most ever since the network started televising events," said Launiere. "We believe our team will be very exciting to watch this season and we are excited that our fans will have the opportunity to follow the majority of our conference matches."

Utah was picked to finish fourth in the Pac-12 Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll, which marks as the highest projected finish for the Utes since joining the league in 2012.

Washington is the preseason favorite to win the conference title, earning eight of 12 total first-place votes for a total of 113 points. Stanford (3) and Utah (1) were the only other teams to earn a first-place vote in the poll. Stanford (113 points) and Oregon (93) rounded out the top-three in the poll. The Utes earned a total of 88 points in the poll.

UCLA (83) came in at No. 5 and USC (71) was picked to finish sixth. Washington State (66), Arizona (51), Colorado (38), Oregon State (33), Cal (23) and Arizona State (15) round out the remainder of teams in the poll.

In addition to the preseason poll being announced, Anae was also named to the All-Pac-12 Preseason Team for the second straight season.

Anae, a senior out of Punaluu, Hawaii, is coming off a 2016 campaign in which she led the conference with 4.70 kills and 5.22 points per set, while ranking fourth in the league with 0.27 aces per set. She finished the season with a school record 592 kills, while becoming the first player to register back-to-back 500-kill seasons (501, 2015).

Anae was joined on the preseason team with Oregon's Taylor Agost, Ronika Stone and Lindsey Vander Weide; Washington's Crissy Jones, Courtney Schwan and Bailey Tanner; Stanford's Audriana Fitzmorris, Morgan Hentz, Merete Lutz and Kathryn Plummer; UCLA's Reily Buechler; USC's Khalia Lanier; and Oregon State's Mary-Kate Marshall.

UTAH VOLLEYBALL

COACHING STAFF

BETH LAUNIERE

HEAD COACH
28TH SEASON
AQUINAS, '85

521-336 (.608)

With more than 500 victories to her name, Utah head volleyball coach Beth Launiere enters her 28th season at the helm of the Ute Volleyball program in 2017.

Reinvigorated by a permanent move into the Jon M. Huntsman Center for all home matches, Launiere and the University of Utah volleyball team now have their sights set on moving up the ranks after six seasons in the Pac-12 Conference.

Launiere guided Utah to its 13th NCAA Tournament appearance after going 20-12 overall and finishing in fifth-place in a very competitive Pac-12 Conference race. Launiere posted her 16th 20-win season at the helm of the Utah program, while silencing the critics in league play. Picked to finish eighth in the Pac-12, Utah managed to record a program-best 11 wins in Pac-12 play, which included seven victories on the road.

Utah went 10-3 in road games overall, notching the most road wins in a single season since going 10-4 as a member of the Mountain West Conference back in 2008. The Utes also managed to record six wins over AVCA Top-25-ranked team, setting a new program record for victories over ranked opponents in a season.

Led by AVCA All-American, junior outside hitter Adora Anae, Utah earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament, but fell to UNLV in four sets in the Provo, Utah, Regional. Despite the first-round exit, Launiere and the Utes will bring back a ton of talent, along with what PrepVolleyball.com called a "sleeper" recruiting class in 2017.

Under Launiere's Tutelage, Anae rewrote the school record books - breaking her own single-season mark for kills in a single-season - collecting 592 kills during the 2017 campaign. Anae became the first player in school history to register 500-plus kills in multiple seasons, while earning back-to-back All-Pac-12 First Team honors. Junior Tawnee Luafalemana earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention accolades playing in her first season with the Utes.

Utah cracked the AVCA Top-25 rankings a total of 10 different weeks, which included Utah coming in at No. 25 overall in the final AVCA poll. The 10 weeks ranked inside the polls were Utah's most weeks ranked since collecting a weekly ranking all 16 weeks back in 2006. Utah was ranked as high as No. 16 back on Nov. 14. It was the program's highest polling since joining the Pac-12 Conference in 2011. It also marked Utah's highest ranking since coming in at No. 16 in the final AVCA poll back on Dec. 23, 2008.
In a rebuilding season for the Utes in 2015, Launiere helped guide a very young, but talented squad to 10 victories, which included the head coach collecting her 500th career win. All 501 of her career coaching victories have come while leading the Utes. Launiere notched her 500th career victory on Nov. 1, 2015, with a 3-1 win over Oregon State.

"To get career win No. 500, it really is just a true testament to the program and the great players we have had come through here," said Launiere. "All of the wins have been great. There have been a lot of big wins and I am just glad to be a part of such a great program."

Utah went 10-21 overall in 2015, with a 4-16 mark in Pac-12 Conference matches. The Utes relied heavily on the play-making skills of sophomore Anae, who set the school record for kills in a single match during the rally-scoring era (28) and the record for kills in a single-season (501). Anae went on to earn First-Team All-Pac-12 honors, while freshman Berkeley Oblad was tabbed a Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention selection.
The Utes went 20-13 in 2014, which included a school-record six victories over top-25 ranked teams. After opening Pac-12 play with just two wins in the first 12 matches, Launiere's squad turned its entire season around, winning seven of its last eight regular-season matches. Utah went on to advance to the NCAA Tournament for a second straight season and defeated Kansas State in the first round before falling to regional host Nebraska in five sets.

The 2013 squad made its first postseason appearance since 2008 after going 20-12 in the regular season and posting nine victories in the always-tough Pac-12 conference. Utah downed Yale in four sets in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to eventual national champions, Penn State, in the second round.

Launiere (501-324, .607) completed her 26th year at the helm of the Utah volleyball program in 2015 after taking over in 1990, when she looked to straighten out a team that won only one match in 1989. In 26 years, Launiere has sculpted the Utes into a top-25 power. The Utes have qualified for the NCAA Tournament 12 times, won six Mountain West Conference titles (regular season and tournament combined) and have recorded 15, 20-win seasons.

Launiere has earned plenty of recognition as the leader of the Utes, she was named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year three times (2001, `06, `08) and the MWC Coach of the Year (2004, `06, `08) on three occasions, as well.

Launiere's ability to attract top-notch talent has helped take Utah to the forefront of the national scene. She has guided seven Utes to All-America honors while 11 have garnered all-region accolades. The 2011 freshman class was ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com, while the 2005 freshman class was ranked the eighth-best by Volleyball Magazine.

Launiere's accomplishments earned her the opportunity to serve as an assistant coach for the Pac-12 All-Stars in June of 2013, where she toured China with 13 of the Pac-12 best volleyball players, including current Ute right-side hitter Shelby Dalton.

Launiere also coached for USA Volleyball during each summer from 2009 through 2011. She coached the USA/BIP Team at the 2011 European Global Challenge in Belgrade, Serbia and Pula, Croatia last July and was head coach of the USA National A2 Program in May of 2010 at the Open Division of the USA Open National Championships in Phoenix, Ariz. Launiere was also on the sidelines as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team at the 2009 FIVB World Grand Prix in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Li Miao, Chinese Taipei and Bangkok, Thailand.

Launiere's impact on the sport goes well beyond the court. She has guided volleyball on the national stage as the AVCA President during the 2009 calendar year and as the President-Elect in 2008. She has also been a member of the AVCA Board of Directors since 2004 and served a three-year term as the Division I Volleyball Coaches Representative from 2005 to 2007 after being a part of the AVCA's All-America Committee for five years.

On the court, Launiere has helped Utah volleyball reach new heights on both the conference and national levels. In 11 years of MWC play, Utah won three tournament championships (2001, `02, `05) and three regular-season titles (2004, `06, `08), while qualifying for the NCAA Tournament 12 times.

The Utes have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament 10 times with regional semifinal appearances in 2001 and 2008. In 2001, Utah fell to eventual national champion Stanford, 3-1. Utah was the only team to win a set against the Cardinal during the tournament. In 2008, the Utes swept Furman and host Clemson in the first two rounds before being defeated by Washington in Seattle.

The 2008 team went 26-6 overall and won their sixth overall MWC title in school history after starting the MWC season 0-2. Utah went on to take 14 consecutive conference victories against conference foes. Lori Baird was the MWC Player of the Year, while Launiere earned the third MWC Coach of the Year honor of her career.

In 2006, Utah set the school record for wins in a season (28), set the school and conference record for league wins (16) and became only the second MWC school ever to go undefeated in conference play. The team won a school-record 25 straight during the season and was ranked as high as ninth in the AVCA poll. Led by Emillie Toone, who finished second in the country in blocking, Utah led the nation in blocks (3.71). Launiere was voted both the MWC and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Launiere led Utah to its first national ranking in 2000 after defeating No. 1 Stanford, 3-2, on Sept. 5, 2000. The next week, the Utes appeared in the Sept. 18th AVCA Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 18. Utah earned its highest ranking in school history on Sept. 2, 2002, when it was ranked eighth.

Launiere arrived at Utah in 1990 and took over a team that had compiled a 1-32 record the previous year. Inspiring a turnaround in the program, she recorded Utah's first winning season in seven years (18-15) in 1992, just her third year.

Utah earned its first postseason berth in 1993, placing third in the NIVC. The Utes led the nation in blocks that year, while Mikki Kane-Barton was the top individual blocker in the country. It was the first time any Western Athletic Conference team earned the nation's top rank in blocking.

In addition to seven AVCA All-Americans, most recently Shelby Dalton was selected to the AVCA All-American Honorable Mention and All-Pacific North Region First team in 2013, while Erin Redd-Brandon received AVCA Pacific North Region honorable mention. Redd-Brandon was named All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in 2013 and 2012, while Chelsey Schofield-Olsen earned Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention recognition in 2011 and Tess Sutton was honored in 2013.

Seventeen of Launiere's players earned 21 different All-MWC honors and 13 have been named all-region. Kim Turner (2002-03), Airial Salvo (2006) and Lori Baird (2008) were each named MWC Player of the Year. Launiere's recruits have also rewritten the record book, holding career records in kills, attempts, assists, aces, digs, total blocks and hitting efficiency.

Before Dalton played with the Pac-12 All-Stars in China a few summers back, many of her players have represented Utah internationally in various US Olympic Development programs. Several players have gone on to compete in the USA Volleyball system, including former players Dalton, Schofield-Olsen, Morgan Odale, along with Turner, Salvo, Toone, Baird, Sydney Anderson, Lyndsey Henderson, Danielle Killpack, Abby Simmons and Kelsie Kartchner. Danielle Leichliter trained overseas with Vanajan RC.

Prior to coming to Utah, the Grand Rapids, Mich., native was as an assistant coach at Illinois (1988-89). The Illini went 57-12 during Launiere's stay and made it to two NCAA Tournaments, including a 1988 Final Four showing.

An assistant at Ferris State (Mich.) from 1985-87, Launiere helped the Bulldogs win three postseason bids, including an appearance in the 1987 NCAA Division II Final Four.

Launiere graduated in 1985 from Aquinas College (Mich.). She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics and has a master's in sports administration from Illinois.

2016 YEAR IN REVIEW

2016 SEASON IN REVIEW

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW

» Utah went 20-12 overall, finished in a tie for fifth-place in the Pac-12 and made its 13th NCAA Volleyball Championship appearance in 2016.

» Utah won 20 matches in a single season for the third time in the last four years and for the 16th time under head coach Beth Launiere.

» Utah finished 11-9 in Pac-12 Conference play, giving the Utes its first-ever winning record in league play since joining the conference in 2011.

» Junior outside hitter Adora Anae and junior middle blocker Tawnee Luafalemana were both named to the All-Pac-12 Team. Anae took home first team honors, while Luafalemana was an honorable mention selection.

» Anae, who broke her own school record for kills in a single-season (592), became the ninth different Utah player to earn AVCA All-American honors overall and the first player to be honored since 2013.

UTES PICKED TO FINISH EIGHTH ... TAKE FIFTH-PLACE INSTEAD

The Utah volleyball team was been picked to finish eighth in the 2016 Pac-12 Volleyball Preseason Coaches Poll, the league office announced back on Aug. 17, 2016. When the regular-season ended back on Nov. 25, the Utes had registered 11 conference wins and finished in fifth-place.

20/20 VISION

Utah collected 20 total wins on the season, giving head coach Beth Launiere at least 20 victories in a single-season for the 16th time in 27 seasons. The Utes totaled 11 Pac-12 victories, posting an 11-9 record in conference play overall. The 11 wins are the most in school history since joining the Pac-12 in 2011 and it also marked the first winning record in Pac-12 play.

UTAH REGISTERS ALL-TIME WIN NO. 750

With its victory over California on Nov. 4, 2016, Utah earned its 750th all-time win in program history. The Utes, who won its very first match back on Oct. 17, 1975, picked up the program's 750th win in its 1,363rd match played. Head coach Beth Launiere, who has 521 career wins at Utah, has accounted for nearly 70 percent of those victories (.691).

STAYING ALIVE, WINNING IN FIVE

Utah went 7-5 overall in matches that went a full five sets in 2016. Utah ended the 2015 campaign with just a 3-4 record in matches that went five sets long.

Utah is 75-57 all-time in five-set matches in the 27 seasons that head coach Beth Launiere has been at the helm of the program. The seven five-set victories are the most under Launiere.

ANAE AND LUAFALEMANA GARNER PAC-12 AWARDS

Junior outside hitter Adora Anae and junior middle blocker Tawnee Luafalemana were both named to the 2016 All-Pac-12 Volleyball Team. Anae was tabbed a first team selection for a second-consecutive year, while Luafalemana earned honorable mention accolades.

Anae became the second Utah player to earn back-to-back All-Pac-12 Conference honors, but is the first player to earn consecutive First Team All-Pac-12 accolades. Anae is the first Ute to earn consecutive first team honors in any conference affiliation since Karolina Bartkowiak was tabbed a First Team All-Mountain West Conference selection in 2009 and 2010.

This is Anae's second All-Pac-12 Team honor and third overall conference postseason selection after being named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team in 2014.

Following the regular-season, Anae led the Pac-12 in total kills (571), kills per set (4.68), total points (634.5) and points per set (5.20). Her 634.5 points scored, at the time, was more than 100 points than the next closest competitor.

Luafalemana made an immediate impact, both offensively and defensively, for the Utes in 2016. Luafalemana registered 252 kills (2.03/set) while hitting a team-best .330 on the season. She also led the squad with 14 solo blocks and 113 assisted blocks for a total of 127 blocks on the year.

ANAE TABBED AVCA ALL-REGION SELECTION

Utah junior outside hitter Adora Anae was named to the AVCA All-Pacific South Region Team, the American Volleyball Coaches Association announced back on Dec. 6, 2016.

Anae was one of 14 student-athletes comprising the All-South Pacific Team, while six players were tabbed honorable mention selections. She is the first Utah player to garner AVCA all-region honors since 2014 (Bailey Bateman, HM) and the first, first-team selection since 2013 (Shelby Dalton).

ANAE ALSO NAMED AVCA ALL-AMERICAN

Utah junior outside hitter Adora Anae was named an AVCA Second Team All-American selection, the American Volleyball Coaches Association announced back on Dec. 14, 2016.

Anae, who was one of 42 student-athletes comprising the All-American team, became the ninth different Utah player to earn AVCA All-American honors overall and the first player to be honored since Shelby Dalton, who was named Honorable Mention in 2013. Anae is Utah's first student-athlete to be named to the first, second or third team since Lori Baird was tabbed a third team selection back in 2008. She joins Airial Salvo (2006) as the only players in school history to earn AVCA Second Team All-American honors.

Anae registered a single-season school record 592 kills, which ranked first in the Pac-12 and sixth in the nation. She is just one of 21 players in the nation to collect 500 kills or more on the season. She also racked up 4.70 kills-per-set, which ranked 10th in the nation, along with a 5.22 points-per-set average that led the Pac-12 and ranked 11th in the nation. She totaled 27 service aces, 34 assists and also collected 54 total blocks.

Anae led the Utes with 407 digs on the season, becoming the only player in school history to register 500 kills and 400 digs in the same year. Of the 10 players in the nation that boast at least a 4.70 kills-per-set average, Anae is the only one to also average 3.2 digs-per-set.

UTAH EARNS AT-LARGE BID TO NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Utah Volleyball team made its 13th NCAA Championship appearance overall after earning an at-large bid into the tournament back on Nov. 27, 2016.

The Utes were matched up in the first-round against the UNLV Rebels.

TOP-25 POLL TALK

Utah earned the No. 25 ranking in the final AVCA Top-25 Coaches Poll, which was released on Dec. 19, 2016. The Utes earned a top-25 ranking for nine straight weeks and 10 weeks overall on the season. The 10 weekly rankings are the program's most in a single season since being ranked all 16 weeks back in 2006.

Utah was ranked as high as No. 16 back on Nov. 14. It was the program's highest polling since joining the Pac-12 Conference in 2011. It also marked Utah's highest ranking since coming in at No. 16 in the final AVCA poll back on Dec. 23, 2008.

#ROADWARRIORS

Utah went 10-3 in road matches this season, which sets a new mark for most road wins as a program since joining the Pac-12 Conference. The 10 victories also match the most wins for a Utah team on the road since going 10-4 in road matches back in 2008.

#ROADWARRIORS PART II

Utah tallied a school-record six wins over top-25 ranked teams on the season. The Utes defeated No. 9 BYU, No. 16 Colorado, No. 7 Stanford, No. 13 Washington State, No. 24 USC and No. 16 Oregon all on the road this season.

Prior to 2016, Utah had never earned more than two road victories over ranked opponents in the same season. The last time Utah registered a pair of wins against ranked opponents, away from home, was back in 2007 when the Utes downed No. 17 Purdue on the road and defeated No. 20 Colorado State at a neutral site.

UTES IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Utah went 11-9 in Pac-12 Conference play this season, surpassing its original high win total of nine Pac-12 wins the program recorded in both 2013 and 2014 (9-11). Utah's 11 conference wins are the most since going 11-5 back in 2010 as a member of the Mountain West Conference.

ANAE SETS SINGLE-SEASON KILLS MARK ... AGAIN

Junior Adora Anae set a new school record for most kills in a single season, surpassing the 501 kills that she set just last season. Anae obliterated her original record with 592 kills on the year. She is the first Utah player to ever record 500 or more kills in two different seasons.

Anae was the first Utah player to register back-to-back 500+ kills in a season. She is the fifth Pac-12 Conference player to do so since the Utes joined the league in 2011. She joins Arizona State's Maci Gardner (577, 2012; 506, 2013; 594, 2014), Washington's Krista Vansant (511, 2013; 565, 2014), Arizona's Madi Kingdon (508, 2013; 34, 2014) and USC's Samantha Bricio (514, 2014; 668, 2015) as the only players to post 500+ kills in consecutive seasons since the league became the Pac-12 Conference.

Anae broke the previous mark of 28 kills, which she set twice last season. In addition, Anae becomes just the second player in school history to become a member of the 30-kill club, joining Mailee Gee-Merrill, who holds the all-time school record with 33 kills that was set back on Oct. 27, 1984.

HISTORY & RECORDS

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

• With 13 appearances in the past 19 seasons, the University of Utah is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament.

• The Utes qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 1998 and advanced to the second round in each of their first three appearances.

• The team has participated in the NCAA Tournament 13 times (1998-2006, 2008, 2013-14, 2016) and advanced to the second round 10 times (1998-2001, 2003, 2006-06, 2008, 2013-14).

• The 2001 and 2008 teams both went 2-1 in the tournament to reach the Sweet 16.

• In 2001, the Utes topped Texas Tech, 3-0, and Utah State, 3-1, in the first and second rounds at Crimson Court. In 2008, Utah swept both Furman and Clemson during the first and second rounds in Clemson, S.C.

• In 2003, Utah was down 0-2 to No. 13 Santa Clara in the first round before rallying for a thrilling five-set victory (26-30, 25-30, 30-20, 30-24, 15-12).

• Utah played host to the first and second rounds for the second time in 2005 after winning the Mountain West Conference's automatic bid.

The 1998 Utah Volleyball team made the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament, which was held in Lincoln, Neb.

The 2001 Utah Utes celebrate after a 3-1 win over Utah State, advancing the squad to the program's first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 berth.

Utah beats Clemson on its home court to set up match with Washington

THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE

CLEMSON, S.C. — Next stop for the stirring Utah women's volleyball team — a Sweet 16 date against the Washington Huskies in Seattle on Friday.

The Utes will face another team on its home court. However, it is a task that should not faze Utah, which defeated Clemson on its home court Saturday, 25-21, 26-24 and 25-21, to advance to the NCAA's Sweet 16 for the second time in school history.

"Our three sisters were amazing tonight," said Utah coach Beth Launiere, moments after her No. 16-ranked and 12th-seeded Utes (26-5) won for the 11 time in a row and the 19th time in its last 20 matches. "I am so proud of this team and what they accomplished."

Utah's senders — Kathryn Haynie, Lori Baird and Emillie Toone — combined for 36 kills, as the Utes have yet to lose a set in the tournament. They defeated Furman in three games Friday.

Haynie's 14 kills came on just 19 swings for a career-high .632 hitting percentage. She also had 11 digs.

"Haynie has been a leader all year," Toone said. "She knew it was going to be a tough match and she stepped it up. Haynie took some pressure off us in the middle which was a great help."

Clemson (23-10) actually outblocked the taller, more physical Utes, 14-6. Utah, however, held the Tigers to a .140 hitting percentage.

The Utes took on fifth-seeded Washington in the Seattle Regional final Friday. The Huskies are 26-5 and earned two 3-0 sweeps in the first two rounds of the tournament over Portland State and Santa Clara. Utah also defeated Santa Clara this season.

Utah was down early in the second game, but rallied.

"We are obviously disappointed," Clemson coach Jolene Jordan Hoover said. "It was a tough loss to a big Utah team who was very tough and aggressive. They did a great job of keeping us out of our system tonight.

"I feel like it kept coming down to passing. That stretch [in Game 2] was critical to our game, especially playing a team like this it is really tough to go down, 0-2."

"[Kathryn] Haynie has been a leader all year. She knew it was going to be a tough match and she stepped it up."

How Sweet It Is

Utes oust Ags to reach NCAA round of 16

12-1-01

BY PATRICK KINAHAN

THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE

The checklist is growing shorter with each goal the Utah women's volleyball team accomplishes.

The latest objective achieved came Friday at Crimson Court, where the Utes beat Utah State 30-21, 30-16, 26-30, 30-22 in an NCAA Tournament second-round match. Utah, which advances to its first Sweet 16, horse its next destination today after remaining second-round play is completed.

In January, one month after their third consecutive second-round NCAA Tournament loss, the Utes set goals for this season. The most important were obvious: win the Mountain West tournament and be one of the final 16 NCAA teams still playing.

Scratch off both for the No. 12 Utes, who beat Colorado State in the conference tournament championship two weeks ago in a sweltering five-game match. Utah needed to rally from a two-game deficit that day.

"It's not always easy to set goals and achieve them," said coach Beth Launiere. "We just achieved a really big one."

Utah (25-6) was just really too big for the Aggies (20-11) to handle, relying on a strong front line. the Utes had a .307 hitting percentage to Utah State's .189.

Kim Turner and Kamona Elliott each hit better than .500. Erin Cartwright had Utah State's best mark at .333.

Jackie Morrill led Utah with 20 assists. Kelsie Kartchner followed with 16.

Aline Gedion, Lenka Urbanova and Adrianne Bradley Drake each had at least 10 digs for Utah.

"We had a lot of good opportunities and digs that gave the middle attack a good chance," Turner

Anae's 592 kills ranked first in the Pac-12 and No. 6 overall in the nation and she also managed to break the single-match record for kills with 31 kills in an upset win over #9 BYU. She also became Utah's first 25/25 player, registering 25 kills and 25 digs against USC.

UTAH VOLLEYBALL FACILITIES

CRIMSON COURT

Utah's Crimson Court is one of the finest volleyball-only practice facilities in the nation.

One of the most intimidating competition venues in the country from 2000 through 2012, Utah racked up a 130-35 (.788) home record and has tallied a 75-19 (.798) mark in conference home matches during that span. Overall from 1994 through 2013, the Utes went 189-65 (.750) at Crimson Court with a 113-37 (.753) mark against league foes

The court was built prior to the 1994 season and officially dedicated on Sept. 9, 1994. It was christened with a win over Montana State and a marathon five-set victory over San Jose State in the Utah Classic. A new playing surface was installed during the summer of 2011.

The largest crowd ever recorded at Crimson Court assembled on Sept. 25, 2009, as 1,747 fans watched Utah rally from down two sets to defeat BYU. The near-capacity crowd also was treated to a 35th Anniversary celebration and Alumni Reunion.

Utah set the single-season attendance record in 2001. The Utes hosted 12,020 fans over the course of 15 matches, averaging 801 fans per contest.

Crimson Court was a launching pad for 10 of the Utes' NCAA Tournament appearances and also played host to the NCAA Tournament, entertaining opening-round action in 2001 and 2005.

HUNTSMAN CENTER

Regarded as one of the top college arenas in the nation since opening its doors in 1969, the Jon M. Huntsman Center has provided an imposing home venue advantage for Utah's basketball and gymnastics teams. And during the fall of 2013, it became the permanent home for the Ute volleyball team.

In its first full season in the Huntsman Center, the Utah volleyball team went 8-5. The Utes won the 2013 Utah Classic with wins over Utah State, Fairfield and Northern Iowa along with wins over Colorado, Washington State, Arizona State, Arizona and Oregon State.

For a structure in its 43rd year of existence, a feeling of newness still pervades underneath the silver dome. But don't let the pristine picture fool you. As serene as the Huntsman Center may look empty, when the Utes are on the floor and fans are in the stands, the place transforms into a madhouse.

A landmark on the U. campus, the Jon M. Huntsman Center is the perfect place to watch a sporting event. With 15,000 chair seats assuring a great view from anywhere in the arena, the Huntsman Center is the largest venue in the Pac-12 Conference.

From its perch at the southeast end of campus, the Huntsman Center stands sentinel over the University of Utah. Inside the facility are athletic coaches' and administrative offices and locker rooms. The enormous reflective silver dome is the largest of its kind in the world. Underground tunnels stretching 2,220 feet connect the arena with the four-building physical education complex.

The famous "steel cloud," a huge mass of steel and concrete, hangs from the dome's interior and holds the scoreboard, and the public address and lighting systems. The building was engineered in such a way that the cloud actually holds the dome in place.

Prior to the 2011-12 season, the entire Huntsman Center playing floor was replaced. A new, $1.3 million scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2007. The new scoreboard features an LED ring by Optotech around the bottom and four LCD video screens, which provide brighter, clearer pictures than ever before seen in the Huntsman Center. The scoreboard also features a player stat board and is 1.5 times bigger than its predecessor.

Salt Lake City, home to the University of Utah and the state's capital city, offers an unrivaled blend of metropolitan life and recreational opportunities. With 186,440 residents, Salt Lake City is the largest city in the state and its metro population of 1,124,197 ranks in the top 50 in the United States. Yet Salt Lake City maintains the charm of a small western city.

Employment opportunities, culture, quality of life and recreation are some of the reasons why Salt Lake City is consistently named one of the nation's best cities. In the June 2010 issue of Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine, Salt Lake City was No. 5 on its list of the "10 Best Cities for the Next Decade." Forbes Magazine ranked Salt Lake City the third-best big city for jobs and fourth-best city for tech jobs in May 2012. The magazine also recognized Utah as the "Best State for Business and Careers" for the second straight year in 2011. Men's Fitness magazine named Salt Lake the "Fittest City in the Nation" in 2009.

Nestled between the Wasatch and Oquirrh Mountain ranges and the Great Salt Lake, the city is located in one of the most picturesque places on earth. The lowest point within city boundaries is 4,210 feet near the Great Salt Lake, and the highest is Grandview Peak at 9,410 feet. The Great Salt Lake (48 miles wide and 90 miles long) is the world's second largest saltwater lake and the largest lake in the western United States.

The city is the cultural, financial, educational, technological, commercial and communications hub of the Intermountain West. Utah was named the most technologically advanced state in the 2008 Digital States Survey and rated as one of the top 10 most socially networked cities in America. Salt Lake is also home to world-renowned medical and technology industries.

Cultural and ethnic activities flourish in Salt Lake City and its vibrant downtown features dining, shopping, music and ethnic festivals, art galleries, professional symphony, opera, theater and dance.

The annual Sundance Film Festival, which is the largest independent film festival in the U.S., attracts movie stars, celebrities and thousands of film buffs to the area every year. According to P3/Production Update Magazine, Utah is one of the "10 Best States in the Nation for Film."

Professional sports franchises in Salt Lake City include the Utah Jazz (NBA), Real Salt Lake (Major League Soccer), Salt Lake Bees (AAA baseball), Utah Blaze (Arena Football) and Utah Grizzlies (East Coast Hockey League).

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Ranked among the top 100 universities in the world, the University of Utah is renowned for its research expertise, academic performance and athletic prowess. The U., which has earned a top-tier ranking from the Academic Ranking of World Universities for eight consecutive years, became a member of the Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

Founded in 1850, the University of Utah encompasses 1,500 acres in the foothills of the towering Wasatch Mountains. Located just minutes from downtown Salt Lake City and world-class ski resorts, its campus combines an eclectic mix of teaching and research facilities in a park-like setting of trees, fountains, flowering malls and pedestrian walkways with incomparable views of the Salt Lake valley.

Home to a student population of over 30,000, the U. offers some 100 undergraduate and 90 graduate majors. Many of the U.'s programs are nationally ranked, including law, pharmacy, architecture, business, engineering and dance. Students come from all 50 states and many foreign countries.

Utah ranks among the top public research universities in the nation, with particular distinction in medicine, genetics and engineering. In 2009-10, the University received a record-setting $451 million in external funding for research. University of Utah geneticist Mario R. Capecchi, one of many acclaimed faculty members, received the 2007 Nobel Prize in Physiology/Medicine for his work on gene targeting.

In each of the past two years, the University has led the nation in the number of spin-off companies started with University-developed research or technology. The U. has launched 125 new startups over the past six years. The U. was honored at the 2012 Utah Genius Awards for most U.S. patents of any company (49), and faculty member Stephen Jacobsen of the Department of Mechanical Engineering won the lifetime achievement award.

In 2010, University of Utah Health Care was ranked No. 1 in quality in the nation among academic medical centers. The Eccles Institute of Human Genetics is one of several innovative medical programs at the U. Others include the Huntsman Cancer Institute, the Moran Eye Center and the Brain Institute. The U.'s David Eccles School of Business has joined the U.S. News & World Report list of the top 10 most-popular business schools in the nation.

The U. is also noted for its work in technology and computer sciences. The University's School of Computing was founded in 1965, and began a pioneering legacy in computer graphics and visualization that continues today.

A lively residential living experience is provided in the beautiful Heritage Commons, which served as the Athletes Village for the 2002 Olympic Winter Games. Utah students enjoy unparalleled recreational activities, from skiing and snowboarding at any of nine world-class resorts in nearby canyons, to backpacking, mountain biking, fly fishing and river running.

The U.'s location in the largest city in the Intermountain West, with a metro population of over one million, allows for an urban experience in a spectacular natural setting. The U. is home to the state's natural history and fine arts museums, and well as the Pioneer Theatre Company.
